

Kyoto Study Program Summer 2015

~From Anime to Zen~
26th July – 8th August 2015

Introduction:

The City of Kyoto and the Consortium of Universities in Kyoto have launched “Kyoto Study Program: from Anime to Zen”, a non-degree 2-week program offering students an excellent introduction to Japanese society and culture. The Curriculum is well balanced, and students will investigate diverse aspects of Japanese society and culture while staying in Kyoto, a cultural centre rich in history. All classes will be taught in English by renowned subject specialists, from among the dozens of universities and colleges in Kyoto. In addition to the courses offered, there are a number of field trips and special events, including interaction with local students.

Kyoto is recognised as not only a touristic city but also a major student one in Japan, with 50 universities and colleges in and around, and 147,000 students accounting for 10% of the city's total population. According to the “QS Best Student Cities 2015” rankings, Kyoto has jumped to 34th position, climbing 16 places since 2014, indicating its great desirability as a learning environment.
